

So, it feels to be time to schedule a Gathering of interested persons in the Maha Siddha Alchemy at my offices in Northridge, California Sat 21 Sept &/or Sun 22 Sept at 1:00PM, Pot Luck again as most people like this. Since some are more available on Saturday and others more available on Sunday we will be Gathering both days so that as many people as possible can attend that want to attend.

This announcement is going out to everyone that has shown interest in the Maha Siddha Alchemy including Navapashanam, Maha Siddha Herbs, Maha Siddha Basmams as well as the other Maha Siddha Alchemical remedies throughout the US and abroad. You all are invited to pass this information on to anyone you know that you feel would welcome the opportunity to participate either by coming to the Gathering in Northridge California on Sat 21 Sept & Sun 22 Sept or through the web site WWW.Discerning-Wisdom.Com I am also open to calls anytime 818-298-6100. Since that gathering is unorganized it is unclear about how to put on the internet. Small groups of people huddle together throughout the afternoon chatting, sharing experiences, eating together.

As always anyone that brings gallons of water can take home Navapashanam Elixir free for the asking. So bring as much water as you can carry. You can give the Holy Navapashanam to any of your friends that are open to receiving it. The suggestion is that you give anyone you give the Holy Navapashanam Elixir to the introduction to setting their three Intentions; see attached for a sample Sankulpa. Writing your own sankalpa/intention is always best.

There is available Free for the asking: See shopping cart at WWW.Discerning-Wisdom.Com or come to Northridge, California

5. Soooo much more is felt to be coming to us it is barely believable!!

A growing number of participants in the Maha Siddha Alchemy are experiencing in the dream time and or in meditation the Siddhas giving them Alchemy. It is felt by us that have had this experience that taking the Alchemy on the Inner Realms is JUST as potent as taking the Alchemy on the Outer Realm.

So, set you intentions

1. Is the Path of Liberation through Acts of Worship of G-d as a Servant

2. Is a Path of Liberation by Acts of Intimate Service to God as a Good Son/Daughter
3. Is the Path of Worship of Spirit as a Friend through Contemplation and Meditation
4. Is the Path of Libreation becoming One with G-d/God/Spirit/Consciousness

Warmly,
